GET TO KNOW PAUL

Paul has been involved in bowls for many years, being active in both club management and on club committees.

Paul has been involved in the hands-on management of three bowls clubs, two being large regional clubs and the third being a large gaming venue.

During his time working in bowls clubs, Paul has assumed roles in club administration and management, hospitality, barefoot bowls, functions and events and entertainment.

Through these, Paul has developed a strong ability to conceive, implement and manage a successful outcome.

Outside of bowls, Paul has had more than 25 years of experience within the banking sector, predominantly within business acquisition and commercial lending.

In addition, Paul has previously owned and operated two hotels, providing him with a strong knowledge of the hospitality industry and stakeholder management.

TESTIMONIAL

Paul brings with him a wealth of knowledge, which he is more than willing to use to assist us whenever he can. He has a finger on the pulse to keep us informed and up-to-date with the most current news coming forward from the wider bowls fraternity that may assist us.

His efforts to work with us in forming partnerships across the wider community to increase participants for barefoot bowls, as well as club member numbers, has been invaluable.

Paul's assistance with funding through grants and other opportunities has also been vital to helping our club grow.

He is always available to offer his support as well as provide that 'sounding board' for advice. Always such a lovely, approachable bloke to deal with.
