GET TO KNOW TROY

Troy has a background in banking and finance spanning 30 years, having worked largely in the corporate and commercial area. He continues to operate his own property finance consulting business, established five years ago.

Troy holds considerable experience in business, planning and leadership gained from his previous roles.

Troy has played bowls for 18 years, after retiring from football and cricket. He has been a member at South Perth since starting. He is also a current executive committee member, past selector and plays in his club's Premier division side.

Troy is an accredited tier 1 coach in three sports (football, cricket and netball) and holds a deep understanding of sporting club operation and the importance they hold in the community.

Outside of sport Troy has a keen interest in his family, fishing and food & wine.

TESTIMONIAL

As a small club in rural WA, we had struggled to attract new and younger members.

We implemented a number of strategies to promote and encourage younger bowlers to come along and 'Have a Go', such as school bowls and junior bowls.

None of these initiatives could have been pursued without our RBM's advice and support.

Our RBM has mentored our coaches and support staff, provided and advised us on appropriate equipment and games formats, linked us to successful junior bowls programs and coordinators, and was instrumental in implementing a successful school program that leads into our junior bowls program.

Our RBM also assisted other clubs within the region and helped negotiate an inter-club competition targeting junior bowlers.

We are very grateful for the assistance our RBM has provided us.
